80 Memo No. 3945

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Geography Division, ORR

25X1A ATTENTION:

SUBJECT: Area Study

25X1C

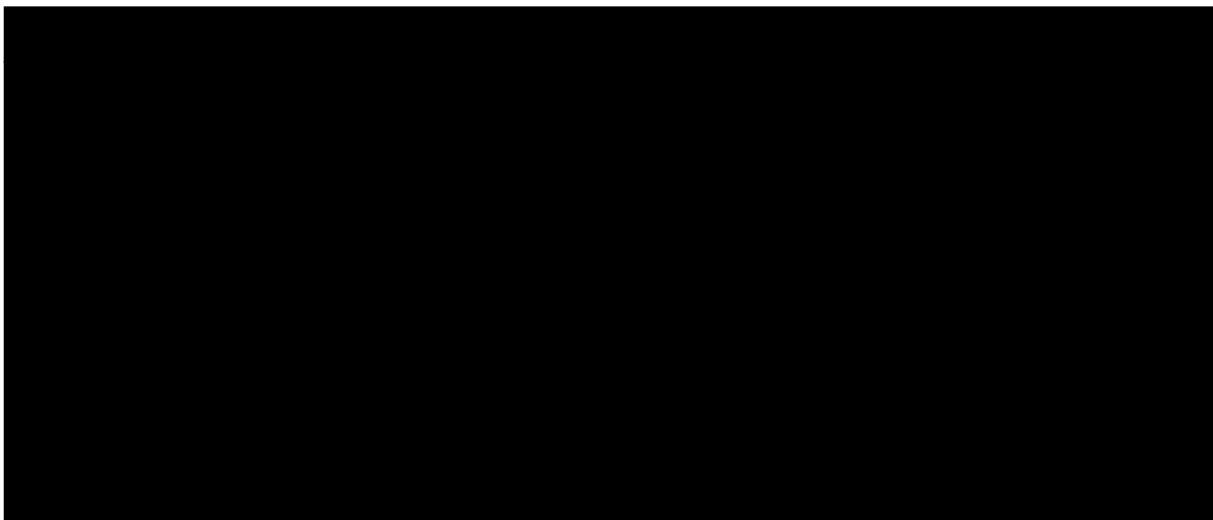

REFERENCE:  12 April 1956

1. After the referenced request for area study in support of clandestine operations was forwarded to your office, a question was raised concerning the exact address of

 There have been several reports concerning and there is some confusion about the exact locations of the suspected installations. OSI has continued research and has located a number of buildings in a comparatively limited area where suspicious activities are reported. Because of the lack of definite information and the special importance of the subject, it has been decided, for the purpose of target study, to treat these several buildings as an organizational complex. An area study is requested which will include all the buildings.

2. The buildings to be included in the target study are:

4. The same type of area study is desired as has been described in the reference. However, because of the variety of locations, certain aspects will naturally assume more importance while others will have to be given only in general terms. To be specific:

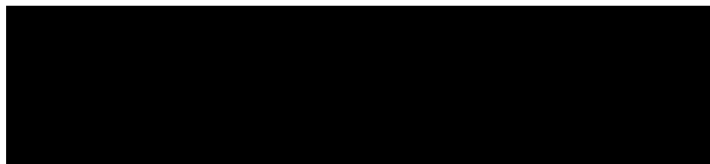

a. A map of the city with the installations accurately marked is needed.
